

Assumption of Risk Contract
(Client Property)

The purpose of this contract is to inform both the Legal Guardian and the client that the Bobby Benson Center will not be held liable (responsible) for any damages or loss of client property. Also to inform both the Legal Guardian and the client of the Bobby Benson Center's Policy and Procedure for Abandonment of Property as follows: Bobby Benson Center will make all reasonable efforts to collect and store the client's property upon running away from the facility. Within (3) Days of the client's official discharge date the Bobby Benson Center will contact Legal Guardian via the phone number that was provided the center and a Notice of Abandoned Property letter will be mailed out to the address we have on file. Legal Guardian will have (14) days after the Date of Notice to call the Bobby Benson Center to make arrangements to pick up the client's belongings. You will have (30) thirty days from date of client's discharge to pick up their belongings. Any belongings left beyond (30) thirty days will be considered abandoned and will be donated or discarded. The Bobby Benson Center has limited storage capacity and cannot store client belonging past (30) thirty days

Assumption of Risk Contract regarding Client Property:

In the event that a client runs away or is otherwise discharged unexpectedly from the center, the Bobby Benson Center is not responsible for any client's personal belongings left at the Bobby Benson Center. The Legal Guardian and Client's signature below indicates their acknowledgement and agreement that the client will assume all risk associated with their property being left behind due to running away or unplanned discharge.

I, _____, understand that I am ultimately responsible for any personal
